

10

YEARS IN BALTIMORE

Reading Partners Baltimore

Looking back on our first chapter

2011

Reading Partners launches in Baltimore at Cherry Hill Elementary/Middle

2012

4 SCHOOLS

261 STUDENTS

Mayor Stephanie Rawlings-Blake launches Third Grade Reads initiative in collaboration with Reading Partners

2013

Executive order enables Baltimore City employees paid time off to volunteer with Reading Partners

Regional advisory board established to support local efforts

2014

9 SCHOOLS

417 STUDENTS

Expanded contract with Baltimore City Public Schools allows for additional growth and deeper partnership

First Run for Reading Partners fundraiser with Sole of the City 10K

2015

Reading Partners Connects online tutoring program launches to support students

2018

Surpasses 100,000 tutoring sessions and 3,000 community volunteers

2020

16 SCHOOLS

508 STUDENTS
(prior to COVID closures)

2021

Reading Partners commits to evolving and expanding work to achieve greater educational equity

Empowering Baltimore students and engaging Baltimore communities for 10 years and counting