6TH ANNUAL READ TO SUCCEED BREAKFAST

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 7TH | KIRKLAND & ELLIS LLP: 601 LEXINGTON AVE

DOORS OPEN: 8:00 AM | PROGRAM BEGINS: 8:30 AM | PROGRAM ENDS: 9:30 AM

Reading Partners New York City is hosting its 6th Annual Read to Succeed Breakfast on Wednesday, December 7th. The event will feature a conversation with Chris Singleton, a former professional athlete drafted by the Chicago Cubs in 2017. Following the loss of his mother in a racially motivated mass shooting, Chris has now become an inspirational speaker and best-selling author who has shared his message of unity and racial reconciliation with NFL and NBA teams as well as multiple Fortune 500 companies and organizations across the country.

Join us to learn about the power of resiliency and how Reading Partners NYC is ensuring students reach their limitless potential while paving a way forward for a more equitable future. Over breakfast, 150 guests will engage with other professionals who are passionate about educational equity.

The Read to Succeed Breakfast is generously underwritten by Kirkland & Ellis LLP. Every dollar raised will support Reading Partners' mission of helping children become lifelong readers through community empowerment and individualized instruction.
